BIOGRAPHY

Chern Chuen has been coaching students to sing privately and also in various music schools since 2003 and his students range from 5 year-old children to adults of age over 50. He believes a good ear and music sense are prerequisites to being a great performer, be it an instrumentalist or a vocalist. Being a good listener himself and a patient vocal coach, he also believes everyone can learn to improve their singing with the fundamental knowledge of the vocal anatomy and the function of its components and with the right vocal techniques. Every individual is different and therefore a versatility in teaching methods are engaged during his classes. He is also a strong believer of the old saying “practice makes perfect”.

Aside being a vocal coach. He is also a song writer. Main instruments played are piano and guitar. His published works include 重返寂寞 by a Malaysian artistes 张智成 a.k.a “Z.Chen” and 曾经爱到 by China’s top singing sensation 孙南 and etc.

Apart from his studio recording and song writing works, he also has many years of stage performing experiences in both unplugged and live band setups and is presently still active in the music performance scene.
